Commissioner Mereda Davis Johnson to Host Fifth Annual Family Day (Drive – Thru Edition)

Event will be at Lou Walker Senior Center

DECATUR, Ga. – DeKalb County District Five Commissioner Mereda Davis Johnson invites residents of District 5 to join her for the 5th Annual Family Day on Saturday, Sept. 5. The event will take place at Lou Walker Senior Center, located at 2538 Panola Road, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The event will be cohosted by ARThink DeKalb.

“We have hosted this community event over the last five years, and we were not going to let COVID-19 stop us from serving our community,” Commissioner Davis Johnson said. “Residents can drive through and get information on the Census and voter registration, all while getting free food boxes, free COVID-19 tests and kits.

“If citizens are in need of food, want to be tested for COVID-19, or need masks and hand sanitizer, I encourage them to join us tomorrow beginning at 10 a.m.,” Commissioner Davis Johnson said.

The event is made possible through the support of Fulton-DeKalb Hospital Authority, DeKalb County Board of Health, Georgia Power and Kaiser Permanente.
